Mont-Tremblant National Park is the oldest and largest of Quebec’s provincial parks. A vast universe of mountains looming over endless lakes and rivers, the park features more than 400 lakes and 2 major rivers, the Diable and the Assomption. We recommend focusing on the La Diable Sector during your trip.
WHAT TO DO

CHUTE DU DIABLE ★★
Season: beginning of May to early October.
This easy 1.6-kilometre hike (30 minutes round trip) leads to an unforgettable sight: a 15-metre waterfall! Don’t forget your picnic! A great family activity.

“LES MÉANDRES DU DIABLE” CANOE TRIP ★★★
Season: mid-May to early October (see website for shuttle and activity schedules).
This peaceful half-day canoe trip down the winding section of Rivière du Diable will amaze you with its spectacular scenery ★★★★. You will have the chance to admire the spectacular rocky slopes of Mont de la Vache Noire, a silver maple forest and sandy riverbanks where you can stop for a break. This unguided excursion takes about 4 hours and is considered easy. The shuttle leaves from the Lac Monroe Visitors Centre. Canoe or kayak rental, oars/paddles, life vests and shuttle service are included.

VIA FERRATA DU DIABLE ★★
Season: mid-June to early October (see website for shuttle and activity schedules).
The Via Ferrata du Diable is a mountain sports trail combining hiking and rock climbing set up on the Vache Noire rock face in the La Diable Sector. It offers a unique way to explore the mountain in complete safety, with the help of a series of beams, footbridges and suspension bridges perched high above Rivière du Diable. At an altitude of 200 metres, you will enjoy amazing aerial views and spectacular scenery in the company of a guide.

LE TOIT-DES-LAURENTIDES★★★
Season: early May to end of October.
This is a difficult hike, at 14.6 kilometres round trip (6 to 7 hours) and an elevation gain of 595 metres. The Toit-des-Laurentides (Roof of the Laurentians) trail leads to Johannsen Peak★★★, the summit of Mont Tremblant. The trail will take you past a number of rocky creeks and waterfalls and through forest, and provides lookouts with spectacular views of the Rouge and La Diable river valleys.

NEARBY

MONT TREMBLANT VILLAGE★★
A picturesque pedestrian village on the shores of Lac Tremblant and at the base of Mont Tremblant Resort. You will be swept away by the charm of your surroundings. Take a stroll through the village, explore the exclusive boutiques or enjoy a meal at one of the many local restaurants. In the evening, Tremblant is transformed into a hive of nighttime activity. The mood is festive, the smiles are contagious, and there’s a party in the air!
